

VERDICT OF NOT GUILTY RETURNED IN HERRIN TRIAL

Reach Decision After Deliberating for Six Hours

(By The Associated Press)
MARION, Ill., April 6.—All six of the defendants in the second Herring trial, were found not guilty after the jury had deliberated six hours and 55 minutes.

Word that a verdict had been reached was received by Judge D. T. Hartwell shortly after 11 o'clock when the square about the Williamson county court house was dark and deserted.

Within a few minutes the attorneys and defendants filed into the court room which was lighted only by a few electric lights.

Only a score of spectators were in the room when the jury was called in.

"Have you reached a verdict, gentlemen?" Judge Hartwell asked.

Foreman J. C. Caughlin silently handed a sheaf of papers to the judge.

"We the jury find the defendant, Hugh Willis, not guilty," Judge Hartwell read.

Similar verdicts were read for each of the other defendants in the following order:

James Brown, Oscar Howard, Philip Fontanetta, Otis Clark and Bert Grace.

W. C. Middlekauff, assistant attorney general demanded that the jury be polled.

A. W. Kerr, chief defense counsel objected, but Judge Hartwell said he would poll the jury although he did not think it proper.

"Are these and were these your verdicts?" the judge asked, holding the papers toward Foreman Caughlin who had stood up in his place in the box.

"Yes sir."

"Are you satisfied with them?" "I am."

The questions and answers were then repeated with each of the other jurors before they were dismissed by Judge Hartwell.

No demonstration.

The proceedings occupied less than eight minutes in all and were received with intense silence by the little audience and without any evidence of a demonstration of any kind.

As the jury filed from the box Bert Grace and Fontanetta shook each man by the hand with a muttered thanks. The other defendants appeared dazed by the rapidity with which the verdicts had been disposed of.

Ten minutes after the court had been opened the verdicts had been read, the crowd silently faded away.

Delos Duty, state's attorney and Mr. Middlekauff refused to make any statement, but indicated that they would have one tomorrow morning. Defense attorneys said they might have a statement tomorrow.

The jurors refused to discuss the verdict but said they had taken only one ballot on each defendant. The trial began on February 12, the jury being completed three weeks later. The taking of evidence began on March 2.

During the hearing of the case three delays were caused by illness in the families of two of the jurors, a total of four days being lost.

The state presented thirty-two witnesses and introduced a total of ninety-five. The defendants were charged with the murder of Antonio Lukavich, one of the 22 non-union men slain during the riots of last June.

Defense Waived Its Right.

MARION, Ill., April 6.—The second Herring trial came to an abrupt close today when the defense waived its right to argue after Otis Glenn, special assistant attorney general had completed the opening address for the prosecution and the case was given to the jury at 4:22 P. M.

In his closing instructions Judge D. T. Hartwell, indicated four possible verdicts for each of the six defendants:

Guilty as charged in the indictment with sentences of death, a life term in the penitentiary, an indeterminate term in the penitentiary or not less than 14 years, or a verdict of not guilty.

Mr. Glenn did not ask a death penalty but said he would leave the sentences to the conscience of the jury, although no crime in the history of the world ever more merited hanging.

"It seems to me that Williamson county has had blood enough," he declared.

Brundage Present.

The defense ended its hopes of a speedy acquittal on the altar of presented for the six defendants: Hugh Willis, executive board member of the Illinois Mine Workers and James Brown, Oscar Howard, Philip Fontanetta, Otis Clark and Bert Grace, all of whom are members of the miners union.

Edward J. Brundage, attorney general of Illinois took his place among counsel for the state at the state at the opening of the morning session.

FIRST MOVE MADE BY GOVERNMENT IN BARGE LINE CASE

Asks Vacation of Order Restoring Boats to E. F. Goltra

(By The Associated Press)

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 6.—A motion requesting United States District Judge C. B. Farris to vacate the order directing the restoration to Edward F. Goltra of his government leased river fleet which was seized by the war department was filed in federal court here late today by Lon O. Hocker, special assistant to Attorney General Daugherty.

The motion was filed in behalf of Secretary of War Weeks, Colonel T. Q. Ashburn, chief of the inland and coastwise waterways service and District Attorney James E. Carroll, who were temporarily enjoined by Judge Farris from seizing the boats after they were taken into custody by Colonel Ashburn who has them anchored near Cairo, Illinois.

Later Judge Farris ordered the boats returned to Goltra who is Democratic national committee man for Missouri while the government's right to seize them was being determined.

The motion states that in the contract with Goltra the government could seize the fleet in violation of the contract which was revoked because Goltra failed to operate the barge line as a common carrier. The boats were seized after Goltra had refused to surrender them.

The towboats and barges are needed by the federal barge line on the Mississippi river, the motion continued, but Goltra refused to release the fleet which was lying idle, to that service. The boats are valued at $4,000,000.

SOVIET INDUSTRIAL AGENTS ARRESTED IN N. Y. YESTERDAY

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Doyle Tell of Experiences in Russia

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, April 6.—Accused by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Doyle of Baton Rouge, La., of having obtained from them $1,100 by falsely representing them prospects for American colonists in soviet Russia, P. Pascal Cosgrove and Frank Reese, operating the autonomous industrial colony Kuzbas in New York, were locked up in police headquarters tonight charged with grand larceny.

The district attorney ordered the arrests after the Doyles who returned from Russia with their two small sons last Wednesday had related their experiences in Siberia, where they had been sent with 125 other American colonists. The case will be taken to the grand jury.

Arriving in Petrograd last year the Doyles told Assistant District Attorney Weller the party was met by "Big Bill" Haywood, fugitive I. W. W. leader, and a review of 10,000 troops was held in their honor. Four bands added to the impressiveness of the greetings. When they reached the supposed cooperative industrial colony in Siberia they declared they found conditions uncivilized. The "free love" ideas of the Russians, they said, finally made them determine to quit Russia.

Mr. Weller said the Kuzbas has 40 or 50 other offices scattered over the United States.

"The Doyles told me a harrowing tale of their experiences in Russia," the assistant district attorney said, "and complained bitterly that the colony to which they were shipped was an unfit place for human habitation. They said sanitary conditions were revolting, that there was insufficient food and the members of the colony were quite insistent upon carrying into actual effect the theory of 'free love' which is prevalent all over soviet Russia."

Food Conditions Bad.

"On May 16 last year, they told me they paid to Cosgrove and Reese, $1,100 on the representation that they would be sent to a colony in Russia where the American standard of living was in effect. Instead they claim they were sent via Petrograd to Kuzbas, in Siberia, just across the border line from White Russia. Later when they refused to stand for some of the outrages on the part of officials of the colony they were shipped to Hadjenska, 1,500 miles deeper into Siberia."

The Doyles had been told, Mr. Weller charged, that the colony would have a steel plant with ten furnaces working 24 hours a day and they would receive ten per cent of the plant's earnings. They also were to have a separate house in which to live with their two children.

Another victim was said to have been Anton Novak of New Philadelphia, Ohio, who, Mr. Weller was told, had paid $1,800 and was sent to work in the Russian coal mines which were flooded when he got there.

"I have learned that Cosgrove is the general organizer and chief propagandist for soviet Russia in the United States," the assistant district attorney said. "Reese is manager of the New York office."

Both declined to make any statement, Mr. Weller said. The concern obtained colonists by advertising in country newspapers and the scheme appealed strongly to former radicals, he added.

"Mrs. Doyle said to me today," he added, "I was a radical once, but eight months in Russia cured me."

ALLEGED JURY BRIBER
ARRESTED IN CHICAGO

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, April 6.—Eddie Kauffman indicted at Waukegan last week by a Lake county grand jury investigating alleged attempts to bribe jurors and venue-men who tried and acquitted Governor Len Small on charges of conspiracy was arrested today. Deputy Sheriffs took Kauffman to Waukegan.

A petition for a writ of habeas corpus for William Riley one of the principal witnesses before the grand jury and who is alleged to have told of bribe money being given to Kauffman and Eddie Courtney said to have been "fixers" and John Fields a member of the Small jury was filed here today it being alleged that he was being held by State's Attorney A. V. Smith of Lake county without due process of law.

When Courtney, Kauffman and Fields were indicted last week it was reported that a true bill was also voted against Riley but this was denied by Attorney Smith. Fields surrendered and gave bond but Courtney has not been arrested. Hearing on the writ was scheduled for Monday.

Menace For Republic In Classes--Harding

(By The Associated Press)

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 6.—Declaring he did not believe there was a vestige of the sectionalism of the Civil War left in the United States, President Harding in an address delivered at a dinner given in his honor tonight by the City of Augusta declared any developments of classes and organization of blocs in the republic.

"There is a menace to the nation," said the president, "in the development of classes and in the organization of blocs. There is danger in envy and jealousy. Let us be on guard against developments of envy and jealousy."

The president touched on a variety of topics and it was apparent that in talking to his

Augusta audience he was striving to reach the ear of the south. It was the first address made by the chief executive during his vacation trip.

Domestic affairs constitute the present chief concern of the nation Mr. Harding said after his reference to classes and blocs.

"We need not worry about our international affairs," he continued. "I can tell you with a measure of pride that they were never better than they are today."

He added that perhaps the United States was not doing all that "some of our friends in Europe" would have America do, but predicted that it will be the verdict of Europe when she has righted herself, as she surely will, that the republic of the United States is the most just nation in the world.

STATE OFFICIALS SAY DECISION WILL DELAY WATERWAY

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, April 6.—A decision which state officials said would delay waterway construction in Illinois was handed down by Judge Beck of LaSalle county at Ottawa today upholding the defendants in condemnation proceedings in connection with the Lockport to Utica canal project. The state is expected to appeal as it was said if the court's decision is upheld waterway construction may be blocked indefinitely.

The present suit is that by which the state seeks to condemn 37 acres of LaSalle county land along the Illinois river to construct the locks at Starved Rock. The state took an option on the land in 1920 but failed to exercise it. Instituting condemnation proceedings later which were protested.

The court held the state could not condemn property until it had submitted plans and specifications in detail to all the cities and villages along the proposed waterway route, including plans for waterway development.

PUBLIC S FILCHED OF $1,000,000,000 BY OIL PROMOTERS

Statement by John H. Edwards and Inspector Simmons

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Oil stock promoters operating in the state of Texas during the last five years have filched more than $1,000,000,000 from the public, Postmaster General New was advised today by John H. Edwards, solicitor of the postoffice department and chief postoffice inspector Simmons who are in Fort Worth co-operating with the department of justice in the prosecution of mail fraud cases involving oil promoters.

In making public the report the postmaster general also declared the postoffice department intended to move in the most vigorous and persistent manner possible for the enforcement of both the criminal law and the fraud order statutes against the fraudulent use of the mails not only in the sale of fraudulent oil stocks but all other cases involving fraud in the mails. Mr. New said the government had been appealed to by disillusioned stockholders to stop the oil stock frauds, after "wildcat promoters" had escaped prosecution by state authorities. Postoffice inspectors, he added, having been working since last summer on more than 200 cases, many of which have already gone to the grand jury now in session at Fort Worth.

The report of Mr. New follows in part:

"More than $100,000,000 is the estimate placed by postoffice inspectors upon the amount of money filched from the public during the past five years by oil stocks promoters operating in the state of Texas. This statement challenges the attention of the country and demands speedy and certain action. Postoffice inspectors also report that companies and syndicates have been organized, run their course, and passed away by hundreds during these five years, leaving approximately a half million stockholders scattered throughout the United States to mourn the fading of a rosy dream of wealth with the final disappearance of their hard earned dollars."

"No doubt some of these companies were started by men who hoped to strike oil and make money from production, but in practically every case the promoters laid their plans to profit from the stock selling regardless of the result of field operations. Seldom was it that a promoter invested any money of his own."

"All the promoters concern operate as common law trusts. Over such organizations the Texas statutes provide no supervision whatever. The promoters appoint themselves trustees with sole and unlimited power to procure and handle the money of their investors as they please without question from and state authority."

"To impose the penalty for using the mails to defraud, the postoffice department and the agents of the department of justice must show sufficient evidence to intend to defraud. The department representatives report that the cases especially those involving large stock selling schemes, are the most complex and difficult to handle of all criminal cases arising in the federal jurisdiction. For this reason they require months and sometimes years of patient and persevering effort."

CONFER ON RIVERS AND HARBORS PROGRAM

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Representatives Graham, of Illinois, Hull, Iowa and Newton, Missouri, Republicans, conferred today with Secretary Weeks regarding the program for improvement of rivers and harbors during the coming fiscal year. While they were particularly interested in the Mississippi projects, it was said the conversations were extended to the national program and sizes of allotments to be allowed from the $50,000,000 appropriation authorized by congress. Conferences will be continued as soon as the three house members submit their recommendations to Mr. Weeks in writing.

Major General Beach, chief of army engineers already has submitted tentative allotments for next year to Mr. Weeks, who, however, does not intend to take any final action by way of approval of them until after President Harding is consulted.

ENTRANCE OF U. S. INTO PEACE LEAGUE TO BE 1924 ISSUE

Will be Forced Into Election Justice
Clarke Says

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, April 6.—Declaring the only serious bar to America's entrance into the league of nations is "a small group of able but ambitious men—some of them very old—who are characteristic of the lives of others," former Justice John H. Clarke, of the United States supreme court, tonight served notice that the league issue would be forced into the 1924 election and that no candidate for the presidency or the senate would be permitted to conceal his position for a single week.

Speaking on the sixth anniversary of America's declaration of war on Germany at the first of a ten day series of mass meetings throughout the country arranged by the League of Nations Non-Partisan association of which he is president, Justice Clark said:

"It is reported that Senator King of Utah, speaking for the Democratic party management, says the league of nations is not to be an issue in the presidential campaign next year. We shall see. We shall see."

"Tell it not in Gath, publish it not in the streets of Askelon, or of Washington, but the suspicion grows that the churches and women's clubs and the great newspapers will have something to say about that, and that the farmers and labor unions will have something to say about it, and I promise the senator that our four million young soldiers and the league of nations non-partisan association will have a great deal to say about it."

"Our association is already organized in every state in the union and long before this time next year we shall have an organization in every congressional district in the country. It may as well be accepted in advance that no candidate for the presidency or for the senate will be allowed to conceal his position for a single week on this great moral question. Whether he prefers this new national agency for peace or the old method of brutal war for settlement of international differences. A similar note was sounded by Oscar S. Straus, Republican, secretary of commerce under Theodore Roosevelt who said:

"Let me say to my Republican friends that if they continue to interpret the last election by claiming that their opposition to the league gave them eight million plurality the next election may prove an eye opener."

"If it should finally appear that in the last election we Republicans and millions of others who favor the league of nations, put our money on the wrong horse in 1920, it does not follow that we will make the same mistake in 1924."

The boys were pulling pickets off his fence, according to the testimony.

FEDERAL FARM LOAN BOARD TO FIX ITS RATES

Indications Point to Rate of Five and
One-Half Per Cent

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Indications were given by the federal farm loan board tonight that an interest rate of five and one half per cent would be charged on loans made by the new interstate credit banks. At the same time announcement was made by the board of the official rules and regulations governing loans under the agricultural credits act.

While the interest rate to be charged will be fixed by the credit banks, subject to approval of the farm loan board, farmers will be able, if the indicated interest rate is accepted to borrow money at seven percent or less. The law specifies that the rediscounting agency shall not charge in excess of one and one half per cent for handling the obligations.

Commissioner Lobdell said he expected some of the banks would be ready to make actual loans by April 20.

Altho it is not necessary that the rates of the twelve banks be uniform board members believed they likely would be.

The opinion was general that a rate of five and one half per cent, would mean material reduction to the average farmer in interest, prevailing rates in most agricultural districts being higher.

The board was decided "for the present" to limit loans under the credits act to livestock, grain, wool, cotton, tobacco and peanuts as "staple agricultural products" within the meaning of the law. Loans on dairy products, eggs, fruits and vegetables are left to future distribution of the act and the question of these commodities it appeared, is not intended to be permanent.

The board it was indicated desired to give further study to rules governing the handling of perishable products.

A limitation of loans to nine months maturity also is prescribed in the regulations, the maximum while the minimum life of security to be taken by the credit banks at not less than six months from the date of the transaction.

The credit bank will accept the receipt of any warehouse licensed and bonded under the federal warehouse act but in all other cases the warehousing laws and regulations of the state controlling them must have the approval of the farm loan board.

The regulations provide also that the paid-in capital of agricultural credit corporations must be $10,000 or more before loans may be granted them on paper rediscounted for advances for agricultural purposes in the first instance. When loans of any kind are made on livestock, the rules specify, a collateral agreement must accompany the security offered so that additional security may be supplied at any time the credits bank so demands.

Two examinations yearly of all corporations and associations seeking rediscounting privileges are required by the regulations and examination to be conducted by national bank or land bank examiners.

It is also stipulated that any corporation submitting debentures for rediscount with the credit banks must deposit with the farm loan registers the securities which the debentures are based.

a great patriotic celebration, which ought to react with helpful inspiration on every citizen of the community.
Many are complaining today that the individual is being deprived of his initiative and is denied a chance to use it. This depends largely on whether he is really an individual. The man who allows himself to be crushed by mere mass or social pressure is not fit to stand out from the crowd. FARMERS FAVOR HIGH PRICE LEVEL
Ever since the great slump in agricultural prices which occurred late in 1920, bankers, economists, merchants and manufacturers have been telling each other solemnly that it is their duty as producers of things which the farmer buys to get those things down to a price basis somewhere near the same ratio to present farm prices as that which existed in 1913. In the face of all this effort to be of help to them, the farmers have almost unanimously stated that they are far more interested in increased prices for their farm products than they are in decreased prices for the things they buy. In fact, far-sighted farmers have stated flatly that, since high prices for farm products must mean high wages for labor and a high general level of incomes in the city in order to meet the increased cost of living, they are in favor of a general increase in the price level. One farmer recently said to me, "I notice that the years when I have to pay the most for plows, shoes, and clothing, are the years when I have the most money left in the bank at the end of the year."

that most farmers have ever thought out just the line of reasoning used here. Many of them have, but a great many more, without following the full line of thought through, have come to the conclusion voiced by the man I have just quoted. Their immediate interests are with inflation and not with deflation, and, whatever the ultimate result may be, they are going to throw and keep on throwing their immense political power toward the side of easy money and higher prices, even if the case of money must be artificially established.
If the mortgage farmer is to be rescued, his rescue must be accomplished through an increase in prices of what he sells, rather than through a decrease in prices of what he buys.—Forbes Magazine.

Margaret Maguire, Philadelphia educator, originator of school for backward pupils, tells about a boy who came under her observation. He seemed to be the champion dumbbell, half asleep and disinterested in the subjects about the teachers brought to his attention.
"Then," says Miss Maguire, "some one happened to mention radio. And the boy stood up and began to lecture on radio in technical terms that amazed the teachers."
That boy had, born in him, the scientific intellect that is characteristic of the rising generation. When a grown-up hears some of these knee-trousers lads, it is not that they are stupid, it is rather makes him feel that the older generation belongs to an obsolete period.
The world is entering a great scientific age. The rising generation reveals that, clear-cut, unmistakably.

A BIT OF HISTORY (N. E. A.)
Six years ago this April 6, the United States declared war on Germany. We won't bore you with a lot of cheap oratory about what our country did in the war—such things as statistics and the force we exerted in swinging the decision. These things, you already know. Or, to be more precise, each of us has his individual opinion.
On this April 6, let your thoughts swing out and contemplate the world war as the war left it—Europe, in particular. Things are still messed up badly. But they're steadily getting untangled. Europe is returning to hard work—increasing production. The people over there, dazed and physically nervous, are nevertheless learning their lesson, that war doesn't pay. Truth comes slowly. But it'll come, in time. Compared with a year ago, Europe is emphatically in better condition. Her politicians still are eating fire. Time will remedy that also—restore sane leadership.

We have been expecting too much of Europe. Any one who knows history, realizes that it takes years—generations—for people to settle down after a big war. America hasn't totally recovered yet from the Civil War. And old-timer, particularly in the southern states, will tell you that the suffering, confusion and bitterness that resulted from the Civil War lasted for years and years. On a smaller scale, we went through what Europe is going through today and will for years to come.

So don't become discouraged when Europe has a natural relapse periodically. Things are moving in the right direction over there, and a lot faster than public affairs lunatics tell us. It takes longer to rebuild a house than to tear it down.
As for America today, you'd hardly know we entered the war, except when you go out to buy something or when the tax man calls. Several millions still feel the war keenly, but viewing the nation in a broad way we have practically "recovered." This is demonstrated in the fact that the war is virtually eliminated from our minds. How many days out of a month does out part in the war pop up to your attention? And even then, how many minutes until you brush it aside?

On April 6, 1917, our Congress took action that shaped the whole world's future for centuries to come. That day was a turning of the tide, one of the most gigantic dates in history. We are living too close to it to realize. The world came to a fork in the road. It turned to the right—and is going ahead steadily. Post-war troubles will diminish as the years roll on.

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM
TO MY LAUNDRY
By Berton Braley
MY collar edges saw my neck
And cut me somewhat jaggedly.
My underwear comes back a wreck.
My socks you launder raggedly;
And though to wear such garments hurts
I'll stand the holes you cut in them,
But kindly do not pin my shirts
And kindly do not button them!
I MUST remove each pin with care
Before my shirts I don again,
Each one I must unbutton, ere
I ever put it on again.
Oh, starch my garments till it hurts
And pains me to be shut in them,
But kindly do not pin my shirts
And kindly do not button them!
FOLD them as often as you will
And doll them out expensively;
It's useless, but I'll pay the bill
Nor murmur too extensively.
It is, perhaps, my just deserts
That I feel like a mummy in them,
But please, oh, please don't pin my shirts,
And please, oh, please don't button them.

ENTHUSIASTIC CROWD AT P. T. A. MEETING
Most Successful Meeting of Year Held Last Night by Parent-Teacher Association of David Prince Junior High—Interest in Contest Was Keen.
The meeting of the Parent-Teacher association of the David Prince Junior High school last night was by far the most successful and enthusiastic meeting which the association has held this year. The large assembly hall was completely filled, several hundred of the pupils and their parents being in attendance.
The program of the evening included a violin number by Miss Christine Cotner and a reading by Miss Margaret Kessler, both of the Illinois Woman's College. These numbers contributed quite largely to the interest of the program.
The main address of the evening was by Miss Anne Stevenson of the David Prince faculty. Miss Stevenson discussed "Vocational Guidance," and illustrated her talk in an interesting way by the use of the blackboard.
Miss Stevenson outlined the work she is doing in the schools along this line of vocational civics, which is an outgrowth of vocational therapy. She told why the work was put on in the school the object being to help the child in the selection of some particular line of life work, and also to help prepare the child for the position he seeks to fill in life.
Miss Anne Hirschman was next introduced by Mrs. W. S. Jones, the president for a brief discussion of the Sheppard-Towner act, and the association went on record as endorsing this piece of legislation. Letters are to be sent to the representatives to this effect.
Supt. E. F. Shafer was also a speaker, emphasizing the importance of the co-operation of parents and teachers. He also referred briefly to betterment which is hoped to make in the various school buildings, in improved lighting facilities, beautifying of the grounds, redecoration of the buildings, etc.
Business Session Held.
After the addresses a business session was held, at which time a nominating committee was named to make a report at the meeting next month. This committee includes Mrs. D. W. Roberts, and Mrs. G. U. Mason.
W. D. Jones has been asked to serve as auditor and is to file his report as such at the next meeting. Mrs. O. Proctor was named a delegate to the state convention to be held in Decatur May 1, 2 and 3.
The contest in securing attendance of parents at the association meetings was last night won by pupils of the 7th grade, with a total of 17 points to their credit. Another contest will be held at next month's meeting, the second week in May, at which time it will be decided which grade will have permanently the beautiful picture donated by the association for the winner of the attendance contest.
Basket Ball Tourney.
Following the program adjournment was taken to the gym for the finals in the basketball tournament. The championship was won by section 6 of the 8th grade, the score being 13 to 10 in their favor, their opponents being section 10 of the 7th grade. The boys in section 6 are: George Milburn and Emmet Barton, forwards; James Carl and Bob Conover, guards; Richard Esmond, center; Paul Vasconcellos, sub. The section 10 boys are: John Cully and Lucius Johnson, forwards; William Whitaker and Edward Cook, guards; Myron Berger, center; Robert Hassmer, sub.
Mrs. Proctor and Mrs. Allen of the rest room furnishing committee sold refreshments during the game, the booth being prettily decorated in the class colors. Those present were given an opportunity to inspect the rest room, which is now almost completely furnished. During Mr. Shafer's address he announced that arrangements were to be made for tinting the walls of the rest room, this announcement being received with great enthusiasm.
The goal for next month's meeting is 600 members present and judging by last night's enthusiasm the goal will be reached.

DRAINAGE DISTRICT
DEFENDANT IN SUIT

Pittsfield, April 6.—The Nash-Dowdle Construction Co., a Chicago corporation, has filed a suit for $20,000 damages against the Valley City Levee and Drainage District, for which Thomas Mehan, Harry G. Edwards and William Severns are commissioners. The suit is the in-assumpsit wherein the construction company complains of a plea of trespass on the case on promises. Only the praecipe has been filed but it is understood that the plaintiff claims pay for work done in the district concerning which there has been a disagreement for some time. The company alleges that the defendant district was on March 1, 1923 indebted to plaintiff in the sum of $20,000 for work done, services rendered, materials furnished, etc., by plaintiff to defendant at its request. The declaration also alleges that plaintiff has not paid the amount due on statement of account but refuses to do so. The plaintiff built the levee which protects the land in the district from the waters of the Illinois river and is now engaged in excavating the laterals within the district.

April Fools' Day is celebrated in this county at the same time the people of Hindustan end their Feast of Holi by merrily playing jokes on each other.

A Second Method of Speeding up the Solution of Our Building Program

No. 5—B. F. Shafer.

In the article just previous to this I discussed the increased school tax as one method of speeding up the solution of our building problems. In that article I gave figures relative to the yearly rate at which resources for new buildings would accumulate and an estimate of the number of years it would be before our grade school buildings could be modernized if the method of increasing the tax were adopted.

In this article I hope to present the facts as to what might be expected in the way of speeding up the building program if we were to form a consolidated school district. It must be borne in mind that the fact that by consolidation we could speed up the solution of our building program, is not the only reason which could be argued for consolidation. Consolidation can be argued in terms of increasing the educational opportunities of boys and girls who are now attending one-room district schools. It can also be argued in terms of equalization of the burden of taxation. These things will be discussed in a later article.

If District No. 117 were to consolidate with the school districts in the immediate vicinity of this, on the basis of the most recent assessed valuation, this would increase our bonding power by about $110,000. As our present bonding power is $15,000, we would be in a position to float a bond issue of about $125,000 as soon after the consolidation is effected as the people are willing to vote it.

The increased revenue for the building fund would be about $16,000. We are able to set aside about $5,000 per year out of the building fund as we are at present operating. Because of the increased revenue in the general fund an item of about $10,000 which is now being paid out of the building fund, could be transferred to the general fund. This would make a fund of about $31, 000 available the first year after consolidation. Summarizing the last two paragraphs, it is evident that immediately upon voting for consolidation our resources for building purposes would become approximately $156,000.

After arrangements have been made for the first building, which could be constructed the first year after consolidation, the increased revenue of $16,000 would have to be divided into an interest fund of about $6,000 to pay interest on the new bond issue and a bond retirement fund of about $10,000. Since at present we are paying off our bonded indebtedness at the rate of $15,000 per year, after this we would be paying off bonds at the rate of $25,000 per year; or in other words, our bonding power would accumulate at the rate of $25,000 per year. The $10,000 and the $6,000 mentioned above would still be available for transfer into the building fund. Thus it can be seen that our resources for new buildings would accumulate after the first year, providing a new building were constructed the first year after consolidation, at a yearly rate of $40,000.

In conclusion it can be seen that after the construction of the first building, the funds accumulated in four years would be about $160,000. Our bonding power acquired in the four years would be about $100,000, therefore, our total resources in five years after consolidation, or four years after the construction of the first building, would be about $160,000.

Assuming that our four large grade school buildings were to be replaced by modern buildings, at an approximate cost of $160,000 each and that because of consolidation one additional building would be required, it is evident that it would require a period of 17 years for the completion of such a building program. This could be done without increasing the taxes of the people living in Jacksonville.

INTRODUCES BILL TO PREVENT STRIKES

Rep. Frank McCarthy of Elgin Presents Measure in Legislature

SPRINGFIELD.—Injunctions originating in state courts restraining employees from striking are forbidden in a bill introduced in the legislature by Rep. Frank McCarthy, Elgin.

The bill, which has the support of the state federation of labor, prohibits any restraining orders or injunctions being granted by any court or judge of the state in cases between an employer and employees or between persons employed and persons seeking employment. This provision is qualified by the subsequent phrase "unless necessary to prevent irreparable injury to property, or to a property right, of the party making the application."

No restraining order or injunction, under the proposed law, could prohibit any person from terminating his employment or persuading others by peaceful means to do so. The section bars injunctions against the raising of strike benefits, peaceable assembly and boycotting.

"The labor of a human being is not a commodity or article of commerce," the measure's second section states. It provides that nothing contained in the state's anti-trust laws shall be construed to forbid the existence of labor, agricultural or horticultural organizations which are not conducted for profit. These organizations, and their members, shall not be held illegal combinations in restraint of trade, it also provides.

ALL WORK IS DONE BY INMATES

Joliet.—All work done at the Illinois Woman's prison here is done by inmates, even to the gardening. Last year the women canned more than 3,200 quarts of fruits and vegetables. Recently the cells were thoroughly cleaned, the walls scraped and calcimined, each woman doing the work in her own cell. Plans have been discussed for drilling a well for a new water supply for all purposes, the water now being hauled by hand from the state prison artesian well, nearby.

March 25, in the Greek calendar (April 6 is ours), is celebrated by Greeks as their Independence Day, because the war against the Turks, which resulted in the independence of Greece, started on that day in 1821.

ROCKFORD GOES IN BASKETBALL FINALS

Illinois Team Defeats Westport High in Last Minute of Play—Plays Charleston, S. C., in Semi-Finals Today

Chicago, April 6.—Muskegon, Michigan and Kansas City, Kansas, and Charleston, S. C., and Rockford, Illinois, will go into the semi-finals tomorrow afternoon in the national invitation interscholastic basketball tournament of the United States at Chicago.

The Charleston-Rockford game will be played at 2:30 o'clock and the Muskegon-Kansas City game at 4 o'clock. The losers of these two games will play at 8 o'clock tomorrow night to determine third place winner and the finalist will go into action at 9 o'clock to determine first place winner. Four games which brought out the final semi-finals were among the most exciting of the tournament, the eight survivors of the original forty teams in the tournament battling desperately until the final whistle and it was the final ten seconds of play that decided one of the contests. In the last game to-night, Rockford, Illinois on the short end of 17 to 10 score at the end of the half forged ahead in the lead during the last few seconds of play and Behr, Rockford left forward won the game 26 to 24 with his only basket of the contest a few seconds before the final whistle.

The Muskegon, Michigan team also fought its way to the semi-finals and landed there by a one point lead, the final score being 26 to 25. Osage, Iowa, its opponent, which had been considered one of the strongest contenders for championship honors, was eliminated during the last few minutes of play.

Hogan, Osage left guard, who practically won a game for the Iowans yesterday, played a spectacular game, but was not up to his form of yesterday.

The Kansas City, Kans. team defeated Tilden, Chicago district champions, by a score of 44 to 28, and performed the feat by sheer strength, going down the floor five abreast on offensive tactics and mowing down the Chicago team before its defense formation could be put in working order.

The Charleston, S. C., team overrode New Trier of Chicago, 38 to 22. The Carolinians proved entirely to fast on the floor for the New Trier lads to maintain the pace.

Charleston and Rockford continued tonight to rule the favorites and many fans declared that the game in which they must meet tomorrow afternoon will decide the championship. However, Muskegon's victory over Osage today showed the strength of the Michigan team is to be reckoned with while the offensive tactics of the Kansas City team give assurance that it will give good account of itself in the battle for first honors.

TWO WOMEN ARE FOUND MURDERED ON LONELY ROAD

Police Believe They Were Killed and Thrown from An Auto

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, April 6.—Misses McMahon, of Utica, N. Y., and Mrs. Irene Blandino, of Jersey City, were stabbed to death this morning with a butcher knife and their bodies dumped from a motor car on a lonely stretch of road near Stapleton, Staten Island.

Scores of uniformed police and detectives who spent the day on the case still had not ascertained tonight just where the crime occurred, who committed it or what was the motive.

Mrs. Blandino's second husband, James, a barber in Jersey City, identified the bodies this afternoon and with Brovario di Lorenzo, an assistant in the barber shop was subjected to a long questioning.

Walter Sterling, a taxi-cab driver who had told detectives he knew two women answering the general description of the slain girls together with three men to an address near the spot where the bodies were found, was confronted with Blandino and di Lorenzo, who said he could not identify them as members of the party. Neither could he say definitely whether the bodies, which he saw shrouded on slabs in the morgue, were those of the women who had driven in his machine.

Blandino admitted he was absent from the home until 2 o'clock this morning and relatives of Mrs. Blandino at Utica, said he had been intensely jealous of her but Blandino said he did not leave Jersey City last night.

The clue on which police banked—the long, keen butcher knife found blood smeared in the bushes near the bodies—had not been traced tonight.

Police said the murder could not have been committed at the spot where the bodies were found because no mud had been found on the shoes, altho the ground was soaked with rain which continued until a late hour last night.

The clothing was not wet they said.

BRIEFS

(By The Associated Press)
Granite City, Ill.—William King, special agent for the Chicago and Alton railroad charged with murder in connection with the killing of Frank Stark, a 15-year-old school boy, a year ago, was acquitted by a jury here last night.

King testified that he shot at the youth in the local railroad yards when he thought the boy was a man who had been robbing freight cars.

Danville, April 6.—The committee having charge of "Uncle Joe" Cannon's home-coming celebration which was postponed because of bad weather, today decided to hold it on May 7, Mr. Cannon's 81st birthday, and to make it a national instead of a local celebration and, if possible, to have President Harding as one of the guests. It is also hoped to have the entire delegation in congress and governors of several states present.

Dixon, Ill., April 6.—Floyd Adams, aged 28, 222 East Hubbard avenue, Belding, Ill., Chicago and Northwestern railroad freight brakeman received injuries when he was caught between the cars of his train at the Nelson yards early today from which he died an hour later at the Dixon hospital. He was married but had no children.

POLES WILL IGNORE RECENT SOVIET NOTE

(By The Associated Press)
WARSAW, April 6.—It is understood the Polish government has decided to ignore the recent note of the soviet government dealing with Poland's representations to Russia regarding the sentences imposed on the Catholic prelates by a soviet court in Moscow. The note probably will be returned to the Moscow government without comment.

Complete order was restored in Warsaw today by the police. The foreign minister summoned the Warsaw publishers before him and urged them to tone down their anti-soviet editorials, which had tended to inflame public resentment over the execution of Monsignor Butkavitch into a riotous pitch.

sat Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois Workers; W. J. Sneed, State Senator and district president of the mine workers and Hugh Willis.

The shooting down of the unarmed prisoners taken from the Coal company, he denounced as the greatest tragedy in the history of this nation in all of the years of its existence, a crime futile in its accomplishment and surpassing the barbarity of an Indian massacre in its horror.

The prosecution in this case could have no motive in bringing in perjured testimony but you have two diametrically opposed stories only one of which you can believe, he asserted.

The defense has tried to prove that the murder of these men was proper and right and justifiable and they have followed this up by trying to prove that these defendants did not do it.

I am not here to defend W. J. Lester for trying to work his mine during the strike. Lester acted in the part of a fool and should have known that in view of conditions in this county he was committing suicide. But he had a legal right to work his property.

The Right to Work

The law does not say that only a member of the United Mine Workers of America has a right to work in a mine and that anyone else who attempts to do so may be shot down like a dog. The defense claims as justification of these murders that the victims were not members of the union. There is now a farmers union in Illinois in this county and in other parts of the nation. If the contention of this defense is upheld any farmer who employs a non-union man may see a torch applied to his home, his fields laid waste, his family slain while he lies dying and begging in vain for a drink of water amidst the ruins.

The armed guards brought in to protect the Lester Mine have been accused by the defense of robbing a man of a handful of berries, of taking a drink of water without paying for it, and with warning trespassers off the property. But do these things justify the most brutal, horrifying massacre in the history of this country, butchering of unarmed men.

Organized labor is too sacred a cause to have stamped upon its brow the mark of Cain. It does not have to rely upon murder and organized assassination and violence to justify the truth and honor of its teachings. And so the leaders of organized labor who have sought to justify this crime against civilization have done more to harm the cause of labor than capital has ever been able to do.

Other instructions related to the legal interpretation of conspiracy and reasonable doubt of the guilt of the defendants.

SEND EGYPTIAN ANTIQUITIES TO MUSEUM

LONDON, April 6.—The death of Earl of Carnarvon has caused panic among private collectors of Egyptian antiquities according to the Daily Express which declares that a number of people all over Great Britain are sending their treasures to the British Museum in London, fearing to retain them as they believe Carnarvon was killed by Tut's "ka" his soul's double.

The paper says that an avalanche of parcels containing mummies, shriveled hands and feet, porcelain and wooden statuettes, and other relics from Egyptian tombs, has descended on the museum in the last two days.

The majority of the parcels do not bear senders names, the owners evidently trying to keep their identity secret.

The museum authorities are nowise grateful for the flood of gifts, for few of them are valuable. But, according to the Express they are accustomed to such enforced liabilities having harbored the coffin lid of the powerful priestesses of Amenra for years.

When a story of the course of the priestesses became public some years ago enough gifts were showered upon the museum to fill a large show case.

MANY MICHIGAN ALUMNI GATHER
Chicago, April 6.—The largest number of Chicago alumni of the University of Michigan ever assembled together, greeted President Marion L. Burton at the Chicago "alumni" dinner here tonight. Among the guests were Charles B. Warren, retiring American ambassador to Japan and Earl Babst, president of the American Sugar refining company.

BELIEVE BANDITS LOOT WILL RUN OVER $2,000,000

Consists Mostly of Non-Negotiable Bonds, it is Said

(By The Associated Press)
ST. LOUIS, April 6.—Postal inspectors tonight expressed the belief that when they completed checking up on the nine pouches of registered mail taken by five bandits in a daring holdup here Monday the total loot, which was announced as $2,364,100 today, would be increased considerably. The loot consisted mostly of non-negotiable bonds, it was stated. Edward P. Clark, registrar for the local federal land bank, stated that he had received a letter from Washington saying the parcels in which $2,130,000 unsigned land bank bonds were being sent to St. Louis, were included in the pouches taken by the bandits. Bank officials said they did not believe the bandits would attempt to dispose of the bonds as to do so would mean almost certain apprehension. Other bonds, negotiable and non-negotiable amounting to approximately $225,000 and $1,100 in cash also were in stolen pouches according to the inspectors who estimated that less than half the bonds were negotiable.

No clue to the identity of the bandits has been found, police and federal investigators said.

HELICOPTER MAKES NEW RECORDS

(By The Associated Press)
DAYTON, O., April 6.—New helicopter records were made today at McCook field when Thurman H. Bane, former commandant at McCook field rose vertically more than twenty feet in several tests of the DeBothezat helicopter. The previous record was 15 feet made in February by Colonel Bane. At that time the helicopter remained in the air for two minutes and 45 seconds. Today's tests were of short duration none of them lasting more than two minutes. Since making the 15 foot record a new engine has been installed and inventor declared today's flights proved that the machine will reach greater heights probably 100 feet and that it will be capable of making short trips from one point to another.

GERMANS GET WATER FROM CANAL

Louisa, April 6.—A Dusseldorf dispatch to the Times says that the raising by the French of the barge sunk recently in the Rhine-Herne canal was promptly countered by the Germans diverting the water from the canal. The French relied on the waterway for the transport of coke from important mines they occupy in the neighborhood and as the water is now barely 35 centimeters deep it is impassable.

He fell forty feet to the roof below. His neck was broken and his skull was crushed by the fall. Royce was crushed by the fall. ## FURNELL NOT AT HOUSE OF DAVID

(By The Associated Press)

ST. JOSEPH, Mich., April 6.—Benjamin F. Furnell, leader of the Israelite House of David, which is involved in a dissolution suit brought by the State of Michigan, is not at the Benton Harbor colony, has not been there since New Year's Day and other officers of the cult do not know his whereabouts. This was the statement today of Mary Furnell his wife, the "Queen" of the order.

Support for Mrs. Furnell's statement was found in a fruitless search of the colony by Sheriff George Bridgman, who sought to serve a capias on Furnell in another suit.

"I do not know where Benjamin is, Mrs. Furnell was quoted. Asked if he was in the United States she declared she did not know 'even that.'"

With a slight quiver of the lips, she added that she did not know when he might return.

From Ada Ross, so-called "lady in waiting" to Mrs. Furnell, it was learned that Furnell recovered from an attack of influenza in December and "decided to travel until he regained his health."

He had been expected to return to Michigan to defend his organization in the recent Hausel case at Grand Rapids, and because of his absence, Mrs. Ross said the cult was not able to offer a strong defense against the charges of fraud and immortality made in the Grand Rapids case.

Sheriff Bridgman said after his search that no trace of Furnell was found altho he had explored the entire group of administration buildings and the House of Shiloh, official residence of the cult leader.

Hunter, the playing thru singles champion and Richards a former title holder also were victorious in the semi-final round of the singles and will meet tomorrow for the championship. Richards defeated Voshell, also a former champion, 9-7, 6-1, 6-1.

Anderson's slump in the final set with Hunter continued into the first set of the doubles. He appeared nervous and Voshell's steadiness could not stem the attack of their opponents. Richards and Hunter came from behind to win both the second and third sets. Anderson's confidence returned in the second and he and Voshell completed the first three games in rapid succession.

WILD ANIMALS—THE GRIZZLY BEAR.

In the caverns of the Rockies and the Sierras the grizzly bear, like many a bold human bandit, has his lair. He's proud of his reputation as the most dangerous and most hunted wild animal in North America.

When the shadows fall over the valley below, the grizzly creeps down out of his mountain fastness and steals out on his ranches to pounce upon the choicest of the cattle. He's a blood thirsty terror, for often he kills an animal, sucks its blood, and then is off after another victim. He can kill a bull with one stroke of his powerful paw, and if he likes, he is strong enough to carry it off with him to his mountainous lair.

He isn't particular about his food, though, and will eat anything from a cow to ants and crickets. He even dines on watermelons and raw potatoes, and he is never happier than when stealing his paws dripping with stolen honey, while the angry bees swarm about him and try to sting through his armor-like hide.

The grizzly bear is a thoroughly bad character. He isn't even good to his own family. He never plays with his little cubs, like most bears, but will cold-bloodedly desert them, or even kill them. His poor wife does all the looking out for the children and will fight desperately to protect them.

Clumsey as he looks, the big fellow can travel very swiftly away from danger. He is always on the watch and has such a keen sense of smell that it is hard for hunters to fool him with traps or even to get a glimpse of him. One famous old grizzly was hunted for fifteen years before any one was able to get a shot at him.

The grizzly is a desperate fighter. He never gives up until the last breath. A hunter who hasn't provided a way of escape after he shoots is in great danger of being killed by the raging animal. There is no closed season for grizzly hunting.

TO RESUME DRILLING IN LOCAL GAS FIELD

C. F. Irwin Returns to City with C. F. Kimmell, Who Will Be General Manager of Development in Field East of City—Work to Start Immediately—May Lay First Pipe Line Soon

The work of developing the gas field east of this city is to be resumed immediately, according to statements of C. F. Irwin, who returned yesterday from six weeks of work in Kansas, where he was looking after other gas and oil interests. With Mr. Irwin is C. F. Kimmell, who will be the field man and general manager at the local base of operations.

As soon as four or five more wells are drilled, some decision will be made as to the laying of a pipe line to a convenient market. Either Jacksonville or Springfield will get the first pipe line from the gas field, tho it is expected to lay lines to both cities as the field progresses in development. Several large wells have already been drilled, one with a production of 5,000,000 cubic feet of gas per day. These are tapped, awaiting the laying of pipe lines to a market.

The work in the field during the coming spring and early summer will be on an extended scale.

Ride on Springs Walk in Cantilevers

Primitive people rode in ox-carts—heavy, rigid, and without springs. Modern love of comfort and speed brought about the easy motor car, traveling on springs so resilient and balanced that we seem almost to ride through the air—the modern "Wings of Mercury."

To a lesser degree, our feet in daily life should act like the springs of the motor car. Nature composed the human foot of resilient, flexible arches to absorb the body shocks. Nothing rigid about your foot as Nature made it.

In the words of a doctor, "The foot is a cantilever spring."

The Flexible Arch

Does the arch of your shoe correspond with the arch of your foot in flexibility? Change to Cantilever Shoes. There is no concealed rigid metal embedded in the shank of Cantilever Shoes as in all ordinary shoes. They flex with your foot when you walk; permit the muscles to exercise and strengthen; allow free circulation; give room for all the toes. They give you complete comfort and trim appearance.

Wear the "Wings of Mercury." That means: Wear Cantilever Shoes. Sold in Jacksonville only by us.

ROTARY CLUB MEMBERS MADE BRIEF TALKS

Four Men Answered "Why I Am What I Am"—Engineer Declares Jacksonville Water Supply Ranks with Best

Members of the Rotary club furnished much of the program at the Friday luncheon. "Why I am what I am," was the theme assigned a group of speakers, which included Dr. A. L. Adams, W. T. Capps, W. L. Kaiser and Charles A. Johnson.

The fifth speaker was Stanley T. Barker, who is assistant sanitary engineer for the state department of public health. Mr. Barker made particular reference to the Jacksonville water supply and said that the supply here is in a list of ten accounted the best in the state.

The speaker went on to explain the processes that are followed in making certain that the water is pure, and then emphasized the advantage of having the water tested here instead of sending samples away, as is done in a great many cities. Mr. Barker said that the city might well be congratulated on the system used and because of the fact that the force here is competent to do all the work necessary in making sure that the water supply is pure from day to day.

Lloyd S. Reid, a member of the Kiwanis club, was present for the purpose of presenting the plan of Kiwanis to erect attractive signboards at the principal entrances to Jacksonville. The suggestion has been made that these boards, which are to be electrically lighted, shall be supplied and maintained by the chamber of commerce, Kiwanis and Rotary clubs. The matter was referred to the Rotary club directors for consideration. Robert P. Allen was another guest of the day.

The four Rotarians who discussed "Why I am what I am," considered the subject from different angles, both seriously and facetiously. Their remarks making up one of the best programs that the club has had during the year.

The club accepted with pleasure the invitation of the Cloverleaf Life and Casualty Co. to attend the luncheon to be given next Friday in connection with the laying of the cornerstone of the Cloverleaf building.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE GLEE CLUB RETURNS

The Illinois College Glee Club returned yesterday morning from a successful trip, going first to Hannibal then to Quincy.

They were received with enthusiasm at both places, "going over big" at Quincy.

The Glee club under the careful instruction of Mr. Lovejoy, has anticipated this trip for some time and much earnest effort was put forth in developing their talents. The concert here in this city on March 29 was for the purpose of raising funds to enable the boys to take this trip.

They were entertained at homes of some of the most prominent people of Quincy. Mr. Govey entertained them to a dinner at Hotel Quincy. They also sang a few numbers at the American Legion Carnival at Quincy.

The program carried out was substantially the same as was given at the concert held here. Every "Nigus" short ditty and "tripping of the light fantastic toe" was received with an uproar of applause.

"Win One More" Is Now The Hotel Campaign Slogan

Workers Take Pledge to Sell More Stock and Reach $200,000 Goal by Tuesday Night—A Little More Than $10,000 is Needed—Will You Help?

Still another meeting of the captains and workers in the hotel campaign was held last night at the chamber of commerce headquarters. Twenty new subscribers were reported, bringing the total to $189,600. Several thousand dollars have been subscribed since the last meeting and the next gathering scheduled is for Tuesday night next.

Every effort will be made to close the subscription taking at that time and each one of the thirty-five men present last night made a pledge to bring in a subscription Tuesday night. This may be taken as an omen of the increased vigor with which the stock salemen will work today and Monday.

The goal of $200,000 is now so near at hand that there is not the slightest doubt of the completion of the job. However, it is much more difficult to sell the final $10,000 of stock than it was to secure the original $10,000 as naturally the separate subscription amounts are smaller: If absolutely new subscribers are not found in the course of the next two or three days the workers will emphasize the duty of increasing subscriptions on the part of some of those who have already taken stock.

One of the subscriptions reported last night was $400 from the Peoria Creamery Co., owner of the Jacksonville creamery. The president of the company wrote Mr. Crabtree that he wished the subscription could be larger, as he realized both how much it means to secure subscriptions to a total of $200,000 and also how much benefit a modern hotel will be to Jacksonville.

In the general discussion, last night R. Y. Rowe said that the remaining task is comparatively simple and all that is needed is the determined effort to complete the job during the next few days.

M. F. Dunlap complimented the workers on securing $3,600 since the last meeting and said that he did not think the workers need devote all their time to the task, but if they would solicit prospects as the opportunity came that the whole sum would be raised very soon.

Mr. Dunlap also spoke of the fine feeling which has been shown in the work thus far and said that there was no doubt as to the continuance of this feeling to the very end, so that there would be united enthusiasm for the project in the final details.

Others who made suggestions about the final stages of the campaign were W. C. Bradish, J. N. Conover, H. J. Rodgers, Lukeman, L. S. Reid, Henry Frisch, Chairman Harrison King, H. M. Capps, George Lukeman, F. J. Andrews, M. E. Gilbert, Dr. G. H. Kopperl and Henry Frisch.

BIRDS ARRIVE FOR 8TH NESTING SEASON

Martins Raise Hundreds of Young Each Summer in Hoffman Cement Plant—Vanguard of Visitors Arrive Friday

Birds that are known to nest in this city arrived here yesterday from the south. They are martins, and their nesting places are in the yards and about the buildings of the Hoffman cement plant. Oils Hoffman has had the birds under observation for the past eight years. He takes their coming as a sure sign of spring, and says they usually arrive about March 17th. This year they were later than usual, and the advance guard of the flock arrived yesterday morning.

Mr. Hoffman has erected eleven bird houses, with room for 134 pairs of birds. Last summer about four hundred young martins were hatched and raised in the yards at the plant. Mr. Hoffman feeds the birds regularly (and they have become very tame).

During the nesting and hatching season, the cement yards and buildings ring with the songs of the birds. Since their arrival this time they have been busy making war on the sparrows, which have been occupying their houses during the winter. As the martins are somewhat larger than the sparrows, the latter are being driven out.

Mr. Hoffman states that the birds have been coming to the cement plant for the past eight years. Two or three of the birds arrived first yesterday and by noon more than a dozen were looking about the nesting quarters. A large and prolific flock is expected to occupy the bird houses this season.

WILL COMPLETE ROAD TO CAPITAL IN JULY

Work Now in Progress on Northwestern Subway Near Berlin—To Have Continuous Road Road to Springfield by Mid-Summer

There will be a continuous hard road from this city to Springfield by the middle of July, according to information given out by H. E. Kenney, who has the contract for heavy grading on the road east of Berlin. Mr. Kenney visited this city yesterday.

The work of driving piling for the subway under the Northwestern railroad on the east end of the route is now in progress. The digging out of the dirt under the track will be completed in about two weeks and the subway will be open to traffic.

The actual work on building the east division of the Springfield-Jacksonville route will go forward as soon as spring opens in real earnest. The completion of the road will mean much to tourists, local citizens and everyone traveling to the east of this city. It is probable that the road will be completed to Danville, entirely across the state by the close of this coming summer.

The HOOVER

It BEATS... as it Sweeps as it Cleans

Why do some rugs wear longer than others?

This is something you should know.

Rugs wear longer when they are kept constantly clean, free from embedded, nap-cutting grit.

And you can't keep them constantly clean unless you keep this gritty dirt beaten out and swept up.

Therefore, you can see how necessary it is that you have a Hoover, because only The Hoover efficiently "beats, as it sweeps, as it cleans."

With The Hoover your hardest tasks of cleaning are made easy, a lot of your time is saved, and your rugs wear many years longer.
